Narrative

On January 28, 2014 the Clark County Sheriff's Office received a call in reference to a possible burglary in progress in the area of 6555 Middle Urbana Road. Units responded to the area and located a gold colored Chevy Cavailer that was stuck in the snow off the driveway at 6555 Middle Urbana Road. Initial contact with the driver of the vehicle indicated that he stopped at this location and got stuck in the snow but denied entering the residence as alleged. Additional Uniform Patrol Deputies responded to the scene and was able to determine that the driver, Seth R. Cook, did get his vehicle stuck in the snow but also discovered that he entered the residence through the front door and also entered the detached garage and committed a theft offense each time. Evidence was located inside the suspect vehicle that belonged to the resident on Middle Urbana Road. Seth provided a false name during the field interview which resulted in additional charges against him for Falsification and discovery that outstanding warrants existed for Seth Cook – ironically for theft and falsification and 3 other miscellaneous warrants. Seth was taken into custody and taken to the Clark County Jail on multiple charges related to this incident.

He is scheduled for arraignment on January 29, 2014 @ 1030 hours for 1 count of Burglary, 1 count of Breaking & Entering, and 1 count of Falsification at Clark County Municipal Court. The vehicle used in this crime was towed to Maine's and processed for collection of evidence from these offenses.
